

Prepositions

Prepositions typically come before a noun:

Preposition	Nouns and explanations	Examples in (inside, indoors)	car, cafe, years, times, places	I'm indoors (home) I'm in the cafe I was born in 1989 I woke up in the afternoon See you in the morning I live in London on (ontop)	bus, train, plane, bike, days, phone, radio, television (TV)	I came here on the bus I'm on the train (phone call) See you on Friday I was on the phone with my friend Watch Eastenders on BBC1 I like the Russell Brand show on radio 2 Can we meet on the 23rd at	time, place (point with your finger) think of at as direction e.g. pointing	I'll see you at 6.30 Meet me at the station I'm at college today I live at 77 Have Fun Street to (toward, movement)	place, future, verb	I'm going to sleep I'm going to Brasil for Christmas I'm going to practice English everyday for	for = purpose, reason, why, because e.g. I wrote this: why? because? = you	I wrote this for you Milk is good for you Is it for me? (present/gift) Feel good for no reason I've lived there for 7 years by (buy)		I have to be there by 6pm (at the latest) by now, you have learned some things with (wiv)		coffee with sugar with you I feel great from		from Stratford to Liverpool street is a short journey I'm from Brasil since	specific date or time	He's worked here since 1970 She's been sitting in the waiting room since two-thirty (2.30)

Onto On
On-top

Website: barnesinstitute.2freedom.com

Beside Side

In Inside
Indoors

Outside
Outdoors

I'm at the cube. I'll do it for the cube. Let's go to the cube.

Under(neath)
Below